Case Study | Recruitment for Rezolute's Pediatric Congenital Hyperinsulinism Trial

Challenges & Priorities

Recruiting pediatric, ultra-rare disease patients

Increasing awareness of the clinical trial globally

Making smart, strategic investments with clear ROI

Managing internal and external vendors centrally

How Did Citeline Connect Help?

Launched a global, patient-centric trial education website

Deployed prescreeners for caregivers to check children's eligibility

Tapped into the reach of 9 different recruitment partners simultaneously

The Results

146

Patients surveyed using pre-screener technology

14

Patients automatically referred to the closest site

Patients randomized into the clinical trial

“Our study’s site through Citeline Connect gave us a streamlined, single-source tool that facilitated our collaborative efforts with rare disease advocacy groups around the world to generate awareness about our study and efficiently, effectively recruit potential study participants. The Citeline Connect team was responsive and helpful throughout the development, launch and active phases of our site enabling us to focus on study execution.”
